2 Days & 1 Night

Beach Camping with Dolphin Exploration

The Island is a large Source of Conch Shells

Beyt Dwarka is considered a part of the ancient city of Dwarka in the Mahabharata and Skanda Purana. It is an inhabited island at the mouth of the Gulf of Kutch and situated at 3 km off the coast of Okha and is said to have been the residence of Lord Krishna during his ruling years at Dwarka. It derived its name from the word 'bet' which translates to 'gift' and is believed that Lord Krishna received it from his friend Sudama. Archaeological remains found under the sea suggest the existence of a settlement during the Late Harappan period of Indus Valley Civilization.
